Get the real facts and untold true story about William Eastwood of CT, USA

William Eastwood was born on March 28, 1963 in Northampton, Massachusetts. He moved to Connecticut at age five where he was introduced to metaphysics at that early age. He describes himself as a normal blond-haired, brown-eyed, boy who said the Pledge of Allegiance every day in school, which included the words “freedom and justice for all,” and then returned home to tramp the woods around his middle-class home in the beautiful shoreline town of Madison, Connecticut in the 1970’s.

William was introduced to metaphysics at about age five. Before he was ten he was coached according the prolific Seth books written by Jane Roberts. Some attribute the New Age movement itself to these incredible books. Beginning in grammar school he was achieving. At age 10 William was performing in public in an ensemble of adult musicians. At age 12 he was awarded the Presidential Physical Fitness Award.

In the 1970’s he tested his metaphysical philosophy with phenomenal results. At 13 he worked on a solar invention for Yale professor, Everett Barber. A year later he sold solar home plans directly from his freshman classroom in high school. At age 15 his 80% solar heated and air-conditioned homes he designed were built in Madison, CT. William was coined “The Kid with the Sun in His Eyes” by the Madison, CT Shore Line Times. The whole front page of the newspaper was devoted to him. Before his 18th birthday he was a licensed, CT certified solar technician, the youngest in the state.

At age nineteen, the solar systems William Eastwood both designed and manufactured were being distributed by New England's biggest wholesaler of heating and cooling systems, The American Supply Company. By age 25, he owned three large homes along the Maine coast.

At age 27 William gave up his homes to live a minimalist lifestyle that would enable him to channel all his resources into his life's mission.

“My vision was of a clean and natural paradise on earth, devoid of war, crime, disease and suffering, and instead rich in love and joyful fulfillment, a world in which everyone could realize their heart's desires. As grand as that vision was, through the 80's and 90's I channeled all my energy and resources to create an educational institution that could enlighten civilization to bring about that kind of future for humanity.”

In 2000 William Eastwood founded EN (Earth Network of Altruistic Autonomous Individuals, Inc., a full-scale, three board member educational stock corporation). The purpose of EN was to provide a means to implement his plan to solve personal, social and global problems to bring about his vision of a new human and civilization. Eastwood wanted to help people create their dreams and realize his vision of an ideal future for humanity.

William says: “At age thirty-seven, days after incorporating, my investor told me to go to Florida where I could work full-time without distraction.

I had done this off and on for a decade already, and wanted more than anything to do what my investor suggest. In my earlier trips to Florida, my best memories are of mornings in paradise, going swimming in a spring-fed lake, then sitting on a towel in my bathing suit in front of an air conditioner using my laptop. I still reminisce sitting in a lawn-chair besides the rolling waves of the pristine blue Gulf of Mexico. I planned EN on a lawn chair on white coral sand under palm trees and surrounded by subtropical gardens and exotic birds. Nothing could improve on that lifestyle—swimming in or exploring paradise with those I loved, and the whole time working on my mission to liberate humanity.

William says it is not our human nature that is causing social problems, rather it is degrading beliefs about our human nature that are causing virtually all our personal and global problems. Through the lens of traditional myths, we read our nature wrong and create a false, powerless, degraded self, when in truth we are powerful, beautiful souls.

My four websites and four books are in themselves evidence that my philosophy works, because the philosophy conveyed in them is the same philosophy that produced them.

William says: “I achieved my mission to help humanity despite attacks by ignorant people trying to undermine my ability to help humanity. Now I am helping thousands of people discover their true nature and ability to create the best imaginable life experience for themselves and to the benefit of the entire society to which they belong. With my four books and these four great websites as proof, I am experiencing a classic acceleration.”

“With the same philosophy I used, you too can transform yourself and your life in any way you wish, solve any problem, and get out of any unwanted circumstance. From where you are now you can overcome any problem, and go on to create your dreams.

“We are all gods in training. Either we accept this, or we have much to learn.

“I have great faith in people and love humanity and the earth, or I would not be creating EN.

“I know you can’t change a person’s beliefs unless they want to change them. I don’t try to change people’s beliefs. But I have always insisted that I have the right to offer an alternative view—that my message to the world at least be made available.

Every person has the right to be introduced to the real facts about reality. Based on the merit of this view and others, they can decide for themselves what is or isn’t true. An introduction to the facts should take place before enculturation and school locks us into a false and destructive worldview.”

“What is right is not always popular, and what is popular is not always right.”

— Albert Einstein

“A new type of thinking is essential if mankind is to survive and move toward higher levels.”

— Albert Einstein

THE SOLUTION

"In editing 'The Solution...' my perspective as a scientist with two doctorates in theology is that 'The Solution...' bridges science, metaphysics and true religion. We can literally change the course of civilization by lifting the race to a higher path through implementing the solution."

- Mario Fusco, Tp.D., Rs. D., BSc

DREAMS DO COME TRUE

From the upper echelons of the scientific establishment comes a completely new definition of reality and the human being. The most advanced physics in the world suggests that accumulated knowledge in all fields is based on a false premise. If so, all curriculum from grade school to university will need to be entirely overhauled. The end result will be a complete and total reversal of focus that will bring about a new human with entirely new and radical ways of achieving goals and solving problems. But we cannot do that while the pestilence prevents us and civilization from entering the promised land. Learn how to become powerful and unstoppable by having the right knowledge. We unknowingly wield immense power. We must recognize the fantastic power we possess and learn to use it constructively.

THE SECRET

Here and now we have the power to work magic of such proportions we have never fathomed.
Yet unseized, such power waits for us to claim it.
It is of no use until we awaken to it.

IT IS ALL RIGHT HERE IN THE SOLUTION
